

The Principal's Post

news and posts from Principal Lynne Jackson

January /February 2017

MCSThink

“When one door closes, another opens; but we often look so long and so regretfully upon the closed door that we do not see the one which has opened for us.” – Alexander Graham Bell

The Devils' Pulse:

Congratulations Taylor Rondanini and Steven Vatchev!

MCST would like to congratulate Taylor Rondanini and Steven Vatchev on scoring 1,000 points for MCST's Girl's and Boy's Varsity Basketball teams respectfully. Both Steven and Taylor have been on the basketball team all four years. Congrats on reaching this exciting milestone!

Students of the Month:

Alexandra Bianchi and Danielle Fralley

Congratulations to Ally Bianchi, a sophomore in the Academy for Vet Science and Danielle Fralley, a senior in the Academy for Education and Learning.

Congratulations to the 2017 NJ Thespian Festival Winners:

Contrasting Monologues: Brianna Vigorito

Duet Acting:

Julia Majerscak & Teax Armijo

Courtney Bulger & Brianna Vigorito

Musical Theatre Solo: Andy Nussbaum

Duet Musical Theatre:

Julia Majerscak & Serena Brown

Courtney Bulger & Teax Armijo

Group Musical Theatre:

“Little Lamb from Alabama” from Big Fish

Stage Management: Emma Nafz

Short Film: Ethan Hoffman, “Laugh Track”

Congratulations Girl's Basketball for making it into the State Semi-Finals!!!

NHS and NTHS Offers Much Appreciated Community Service

Mrs. Manser and the Bridges Outreach appreciates the toiletries donated by the MCST National Honor Society and National Technical Honor Society. The bags were very much appreciated by the guests of the program many of whom have no permanent residence or are experiencing economic difficulty.

Thank you to Mrs. Dessel, Mrs. Ilardi, NHS and NTHS!

Education and Learning Academy Gives Back

Sophomores in the Academy for Education and Learning certainly made the holidays brighter for children at the Goryeb Children's Hospital in Morristown. The students raised over $400 to purchase gifts and wrapping items for the children. In addition, they also donated their own items and contributed their own funds.

Thank you to Mrs. Skomial and her students!

VPA Dance Halls of Ivy Wins Film Festival!

Congratulation to VPA Dance juniors for winning the Capturing Motion NYC for their film, Halls of Ivy.

Students from the class of 2018 along with our guest artist Brianna McGraw created and edited this original dance film.

Running in Memoriam

Friends and family of the late Andy Latincsics gathered together to run in the Orange Runners Club Winter Series 5K in Middletown, New York. They decided the best way to celebrate Latincsics' life was to spend a day doing something he had loved to do: run.

